

Money Bags: start early

DESCRIPTION: Whom This Book is For
If you, and only you because you are so special, can get in on a sure thing, then probably it is too good to be true. Walk away. They aren't giving away free anything today! Sooner or later, we come upon something that looks like a deal. It sure is, for the person who is persuading you to take advantage of it. Those people are called sharks. Kids have to learn who they can trust, unfortunately sometimes getting burnt is the best lesson. This book is for anyone interested in exploring a scam and can be used as a textbook guide for elementary level students or home-study education. Teachers can use the book as a learning tool to make their students aware of being taken by same age people or adults. You will develop a sense to spot a scam and see how the scam was found out. Learn not to be a victim. Empower yourself at an early age, it's never too early. Like any new awareness, you will have to be alert for the clues, called tells, that you are about to be eaten by a shark. Learn to just walk away.
