

No Longer Lonely: A gay former priest journeys from his secret to freedom.

Having entered into a relationship with the Roman Catholic Church as a priest, while not “owning my own truth” and keeping it a secret, I was feeling alone, fearing for my security and acceptance; I became co-dependent. Yearning for a significant other who would also be my soul mate—and realizing this would never be allowed as a Catholic priest—created my experience of loneliness as one of sorrow and pain. When I went into the priesthood, I checked my own truth at the door. Well locked up, I forgot myself. “After having left the priesthood, I no longer feel lonely because I have changed my concept of God and began to own my own truth.
