

Charles and Hero--Isle of Mists

When Charles and Hero arrive in the coastal village of Howth Head, they find the townsfolk too frightened to send their fishing boats into the waters of the Calder Sea. The last three fishing boats that traveled into the fog line in search of more abundant fishing grounds never returned. Except for one man found clinging to a broken piece of wood, all the crews were lost. Before the man died, he told a terrifying tale of a horrible pounding that filled the air just before a monster with a serpents head appeared out of the mist and destroyed their boats. They got too close to the Isle of Mists, one of the townsfolk said. No one goes there anymore, another said. Its an evil place, a third said. If they didnt rid themselves of this horror, they would all surely starve to death. And they wanted Charles and the purple dragon he called Hero to help them. But Im only a boy, Charles told them. Anyone who flies on a devil beast can do anything, they said.
